

Due to the prevalence of COVID-19 and under guidance from the UK Government, in 2020 Gedling Ballet School introduced pre-recorded class videos and also started to use online video software for live classes (zoom). This additional method of delivering classes will continue alongside in-person classes.

TERMS & CONDITIONS for On Line Classes:

As our Public Liability insurance cover has been extended to include live streaming and pre-recorded classes, we are required to issue the following health and safety warning. And in order to participate in online lessons, and/or training at home activities, parents must agree to the new terms and conditions as detailed below:

By participating in these online lessons, and /or training at home activities, you are agreeing to the following:

1. Your child will not be left unsupervised at any point in the session/activity.
2. You are able to provide at least 6ft² of clear floor space for the student's use. So enough room to participate without there being any obvious risk of injury to themselves, to others, or risk of any damage to surrounding property - where no furniture, slip and/or trip hazards can be found.
3. You will ensure that the flooring in the room is safe for the session/activity to be undertaken
4. You will ensure the student is wearing appropriate uniform and footwear.
5. You understand that as Gedling Ballet School are not providing these services in person, we are unable to provide any first aid or safeguarding services.
6. You understand that Gedling Ballet School are not responsible for any changes, data loss or software malfunction as a result of using the software applications to view or download class material. You also agree to their separate terms of use.
7. You will not hold Gedling Ballet School responsible for any injury sustained as result of participation in these classes or activities and will encourage your child to stop participating if they feel uncomfortable, tired, or unwell.
8. Where information is shared regarding online classes and activities outside of Gedling Ballet School, in taking part you agree to accept full responsibility should any injury be sustained.
