Arrangements will be made to provide pre-recorded tutorial videos which can be accessed from the school's website, as used in the summer term during the lockdown period of covid-19. Alternatively, live online classes, for example by zoom, may be offered. Should either of these options not be possible, class fees will be carried over to the following term, fees are not refundable.

Should an individual family be required by NHS to self-isolate, we will offer pre-recorded videos to enable training to continue at home.
